I sent you three adds. Matt just sent a version that had the R6 numbers wrong.

Subject: Information on the Response Effort

All – sorry for this – since I have hit many of you with email after email this morning. The Administrator sent along some thoughts and notes last night that she wants us to help address prior to her visits over the next couple of days. I believe I have captured all of the various pieces she mentioned in her string. Your help in filling out the open space would be tremendously helpful. I would like to have as much of this in her hands before she heads to Durango later this morning. (I have indicated folks that might be best position to contribute to the responses.)

Thanks.
